- a. Meeting means the conducting of business of a public body by a majority of its members being personally together.
- b. Regularly scheduled meeting means a meeting at which the regular business of the public body is conducted.
- c. Emergency meeting means any meeting called for the purpose of dealing with an emergency. For purposes of this act, an emergency is defined as a situation involving injury to persons or injury and damage to public or personal property or immediate financial loss when the time requirements for public notice of a special meeting would make such procedure impractical and increase the likelihood of injury or damage or immediate financial loss.
- d. Continued or reconvened meeting means a meeting which is assembled for the purpose of finishing business appearing on an agenda of a previous meeting. For the purposes of this act, only matters on the agenda for the previous meeting at which the announcement of the continuance is made may be discussed at a continued or reconvened meeting.

2. At eight p.m. on the first Monday following a regular municipal election, the Commission shall meet at the usual place for holding its meeting and the newly elected members shall, after qualifying, assume the duties of office. Thereafter the commission shall meet at such times as may be prescribed by ordinance or resolution, but not less frequently than once each month.

3. Municipal business of the City Commission shall be conducted at regularly scheduled, open and public meetings held in City Hall (or other agreed upon place which is open to the public) on the first Monday, beginning at 7:00 o'clock p.m., and the third Wednesday, beginning at 2:00 o'clock p.m., of each month or, in the event of conflict with a holiday, on the next following day which is not a holiday, except when a special or emergency meeting is deemed necessary by the Mayor, City Commission or City Manager.

9. Special meetings of the Commission shall be called by the City Clerk upon the written request of the Mayor, the City Manager or two members of the Commission. Any such notice shall state the subject to be considered at the special meeting, and no other subject shall be there considered. Before the action taken at a special meeting shall be valid, the record must show the members of the Commission present, the members absent that each absent member had notice of the meeting and its purpose, and the notice itself must be spread upon the record.

- a. Special meetings shall not be held without public notice being given at least forty-eight (48) hours prior to said meeting, shall be given in writing, in person, or by telephonic means to the City Clerk.

10. In the event of an emergency, an emergency meeting of the City Commission may be held without public notice required. Should an emergency meeting be required, as much advance public notice as is reasonable and possible under the circumstances existing shall be made in person or by telephonic or electronic means.

Section 1-27. Commission Rules.

The Commission shall determine its own rules and order of business and keep a journal of its proceedings. It shall have power to compel the attendance of absent members, may punish its members for disorderly behavior, and by vote of not less than four members may expel a member for disorderly conduct or violation of its rules, but no member shall be expelled unless notified of the charge against him and given an opportunity to be heard in his own defense. The rules of the Commission shall provide that citizens of the City shall have a reasonable opportunity to be heard at any open meeting of the Commission in regard to any matter considered thereat.

Section 1-28. Quorum.

A majority of the members elected to the Commission shall constitute a quorum to do business, but a less number may adjourn from time to time and compel the attendance of absent members in such manner and under such penalties as may be prescribed by ordinance. The affirmative vote of a majority of the members elected to the Commission shall be necessary to adopt any ordinance, resolution, order or vote; except that a vote to adjourn, or to compel the attendance of absent members, may be adopted by a majority of the members present. No member shall be excused from voting except on matters involving the consideration of his own official conduct or when his financial interests are involved. Upon every vote the ayes and nays shall be called and recorded, and every motion, resolution or ordinance shall be reduced to writing and read before the final vote is taken thereon. Every resolution or ordinance passed by the Commission must be signed by the Mayor or by the Mayor Pro Tem, when so acting, and be recorded and published before the same shall be in force, except as otherwise hereinafter provided.
